LONDON (AP) - Severe gales and blizzards swept much of the British Isles today after the worst buffeting of the winter Wednesday night.

London had bright sunshine and blue skies, but an Air Ministry spokesman said the north and west coasts could expect "a tough time again." Winds of more than 60 miles an hour held the 43,340-ton British aircraft carrier Ark Royal in Devonport harbor and prevented her sailing. Twelve ships sought safety at the Kent port of Margate; and chanel ferries ran late. Some domestic passenger

DEAN BURCH TOOK RAP FOR LOST CAUSE

An AP News Analysis By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) Outgoing Republican National Chairman Dean Burch took the rap for the conservative cause he championed in a campaign he did not control.

It was Barry Goldwater's show, and Burch was Goldwater's man. When the show flopped, only Burch was around to face the critics.

Goldwater and his influence were their real target. But the former senator was out of public view, and the key men in his campaign policy decisions were back in private life.

WAS ONLY SYMBOL

During the futile effort to keep his job, Burch argued that he was a technician, not a theoretician. And he insisted he had done his technical chores well.

But that was never the argument. To his liberal and moderate critics Burch was simply a symbol of Goldwater, a leader they never relished.

Every step Burch took in hope of holding on only tied him closer to Goldwater, without whom he would never have had the job in the first place.

Perhaps his status was best dramatized on the December day when Burch sat across the hall while Goldwater, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice Presi dent Richard M. Nixon talked about his future.

FIRMER IMAGE

A newcomer to top-level na tional politics. Burch could only turn to Goldwater for help in the effort to withstand his foes.

Each time the chairman did so, his own image as a symbol of the defeated presidential nominee and the party's conservative wing - an image Burch acknowledged - became more firmly set.

Aside from Goldwater and former Rep. William E. Miller, Goldwater's running mate Burch had no top-level allies to plead his cause. As a newcomer he lacked the store of political contact and past-due favors that might have helped his losing campaign.

BALANCE NO HELP

Ray C. Bliss, the man Goldwater finally accepted as a replacement, has his own store of alliances, built during 16 years as Ohio party chairman.

Arguing Burch's competence, Goldwater pointed to the surplus in the National Committee's treasury. Its size has not been disclosed by the commit-

Republican critics answered that there was no point in having dollars left over if the mon ey could have helped avert a landslide loss. Some charged that liberal and moderate candidates were short-changed during the campaign.

Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania accused conservative leaders at national headquarters of hoarding the money in anticipation of their defeat.

One Quad Dies, Others Doing Well

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP) - A girl member of the Graff quadruplets, born Monday, died early Wednesday at Kenosha Memorial Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said the child had had respiratory trouble since birth.

The mother, Joyce Graff, 23, was described as "crushed" by the loss of the child but was in good physical condition.

The other babies, two boys and a girl, were doing well in incubators, the spokesman said. They were born about six weeks premature.
